2nd Annual Jefferson Liver Disease Symposium

Saturday, April 2, 2016 | The College of Physicians of Philadelphia

This program will address and discuss both the common, as well as critical, liver diseases presenting in the office of the gastrointestinal specialist, primary care practitioner, internist, and mid-level provider. Educational Sessions during the conference will be organized into the following categories, to provide broad coverage of topics of interest: viral hepatitis, HCC and DILI; miscellaneous topics and complications of cirrhosis. Special emphasis will be placed on NASH as it relates to evolving concepts and upcoming therapies. The topics in each of these sections have major relevance to nurses, physician extenders, primary care physicians, and gastroenterologists in 2016.

Topics Will Include:

- Updates in Management of Viral Hepatitis, Hepatocellular Carcinoma, Drug Induced Liver Injury, and Acute Liver Failure
- Complications of Cirrhosis
- Keynote Lecture: "NASH-Evolving Concepts and Upcoming Therapies"

Featured Guest Speaker:

Arun J. Sanyal, MD, FAASLD
Professor of Medicine
Division of Gastroenterology, Hepatology and Nutrition
Virginia Commonwealth University
