Jefferson Center for Interprofessional Education 2016 Conference

Interprofessional Care for the 21st Century: Redefining Education & Practice

Friday-Saturday, October 28-29, 2016

LEARNING OBJECTIVES
At the conclusion of this course, participants should be able to:

- Define methods of evaluating patient outcomes in assessing the effectiveness of interprofessional education and collaborative practice endeavors (Knowledge)
- Recognize opportunities/apply strategies to engage patients as partners in developing new models of interprofessional education and care (Comprehension/Application)
- Describe/apply approaches for engaging students in and preparing faculty for interprofessional education work (Comprehension/Application)
- Employ technology and social media to advance interprofessional education and collaborative practice (Application)
- Design innovative interprofessional curriculum, collaborative practice and quality improvement initiatives with attention to actualizing academic and clinical partnerships (Synthesis)
- Assess their individual practices in light of the information and discussions during the course, and identify specific strategies to implement as part of a continuing improvement process for their practices.