

Leadership for Physicians Saturday, June 10, 2017

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

At the completion of the course, learners will be able to:

- Identify the unique leadership skill set needed to operate effectively in at healthcare setting
- Examine how gender plays a role in the leadership dynamic and how to implement strategies for creating an effective, gender neutral leadership environment.
- Describe the four essential components of emotional intelligence.
- Apply effective principles of mentoring and coaching to staff and trainees.
- Examine effective conflict management techniques and develop strategies for implementation in the clinical setting.
- Apply the basics of accounting principles into clinical practice to identify cost drivers and drains, and develop strategies for better resource utilization.
- Examine quality metrics that affect clinical reimbursement rates and implement strategies designed to identify problematic areas in the process.
- Evaluate and monitor trends impacting the healthcare industry, and initiate proactive processes to maintain financial stability and manage change in clinical practice.
- Assess their individual practices in light of the information and discussions during the course, and identify specific strategies to implement as part of a continuing improvement process for their practices