

Telehealth Facilitator Certificate Program

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

At the completion of the course, learners will be able to:

- Compare and contrast telehealth and standard healthcare delivery.
- Define the applications, benefits and challenges of telehealth delivery.
- Recognize the role of the telehealth facilitator within the inter-professional team.
- Identify and employ common telehealth technologies with technical, clinical and operational proficiency.
- Describe general troubleshooting tips during Telehealth encounters for network, connection and audiovisual concerns.
- Identify the ethical, legal, and regulatory considerations surrounding Telehealth use paying close attention to “websites” manner.