2016-17 U.S. News & World Report Voting on Doximity

Step 1: Log In, select “Submit Your Nominations” on the right-hand side

The screenshot shows a Doximity feed with several articles and a sidebar. A red circle highlights a blue button labeled "Submit your Nominations" in the sidebar. The sidebar also contains a "Dismiss" link and a "U.S. News Best Hospitals in Oncology" section with a "BEST HOSPITALS USNews" logo. Below this is a "Suggested Jobs" section with three job listings: "RadOncs - Join a Rewarding Practice in WA Washington", "Ongoing Radiation Oncology Locums in Illinois from LT.com Illinois", and "Rad Onc Opportunity at State of the Art Clinic Just North of Boston Near Boston, MA".

Step 2: Choose the hospitals for which you'd like to vote

The screenshot shows the Doximity nomination form for "BEST HOSPITALS 2016-17". The form includes instructions: "Your nominations will be reflected in the 2016-17 U.S. News & World Report Oncology rankings. Please name up to 5 U.S. hospitals that you believe provide the best care in Oncology for patients who have the most challenging conditions or who need particularly difficult procedures. Do not consider location or cost. Individual hospitals should be nominated, not hospital systems or medical schools. To nominate a hospital: 1. Type the name of a hospital into a space below. 2. If the hospital appears in the drop-down menu, you may select it. 3. Otherwise, enter the hospital's complete name, city and state." Below the instructions are two input fields labeled "Hospital A:" and "Hospital B:". The "Hospital A:" input field is circled in red.

Your choices should auto-populate once you begin to type them in:
